49 (SPLIT C)(SPLIT B)(RTR WITH TRADE) We need to make our economy work for everyone, not just the rich and well-connected. Too many are wedded to the failed theory of trickle down economics. Too many CEOs move jobs overseas and prioritize short-term stock prices over long-term investments in their workers. Too many wealthy special interests are using lobbyists so the economy works for them. I have a plan to rewrite the rules of the economy so it works for everybody, not just those at the top. We must end the stranglehold of big money on our politics. We cannot allow Wall Street to wreck Main Street again and corporations and the wealthy must pay their fair share of taxes. More employees must be able to join unions. Our trade deals must be good for working families and not encourage American companies to move jobs overseas. And let's provide affordable childcare, paid leave and equal pay for women, make college debt-free, and make large infrastructure investments to create middle class jobs. Because we're stronger together when we grow together.....

| 51 (SPLIT D)(BUILD) President Obama saved us from the worst economic crisis since the great depression. Thanks to his leadership and the hard work of the American people, we have created 14 million private sector jobs in past 6 and half years and the auto industry has made a strong come back. But America's economy isn't yet where we want it to be. People are working harder and longer just to keep their heads above water. The task for the next president is to build on President Obama's accomplishments to expand opportunity and break down the barriers holding too many people back. We need to give the middle class a raise and put Americans to work by investing in our infrastructure and new industries like clean energy. And let's provide affordable childcare, paid leave and equal pay for women, and make college debt-free. Because we're stronger together when we grow together. | 21 | 19 | 18 | 41 | 0 | 41 | 58 | 59 |

Q.52 Now I am going to read you a statement from Donald Trump about what needs to be done for the economy. Please tell me whether that statement makes you feel much more positive, somewhat more positive, a little more positive, or no more positive about Donald Trump's economic plans?

America doesn't win anymore. We used to be the world's greatest economy and created the biggest middle class the world has ever known. But then our politicians and the elites decided to pursue a policy of globalization. They negotiated disastrous trade deals that moved our best jobs, our wealth and our factories to Mexico and overseas. And they stopped protecting our borders so illegal immigrants take our jobs. It's time to take our country back from elites, bring back our jobs and put America first again. I will cut taxes and regulations on businesses and I will build a wall with Mexico. I will completely redo our trade deals and crack down on countries cheating on trade like China. And I will say no to the new TPP trade deal that would decimate American manufacturing. I will do for America what I have done for my businesses and make America rich again.
