Education is the key to a better future - for people and for the country - but 29 states are spending less on public education than they were a decade ago and teachers across the country are being forced to take to the streets to fight for the resources politicians won't give them. Instead of funding education, Trump and Republicans spent $2.2 trillion on a tax cut for corporations and the rich. We should end the Trump tax cut for the rich so we can invest in our schools, programs kids need, and higher pay for teachers.....
