Q.76 Now I'm going to read you a pair of statements that describe what Barack Obama and John McCain have been saying. After I read these statements, please tell me which one you agree with more.

Barack Obama says, "For eight years we've given tax breaks to big corporations and the wealthiest Americans and the result has been devastating for the working class. McCain will continue giving hundreds of billions of tax breaks to big oil and corporate interests instead of to the middle class. My plan gives three times as many tax cuts to the middle class as he proposes, won't raise taxes a penny for anyone making under 250,000 dollars and eliminates income tax for seniors making less than 50 thousand dollars a year."

John McCain says, "We need to get the American economy running at full speed again by keeping taxes low and providing real financial relief to the millions of American families that need it most. Barack Obama has proposed the biggest tax increase in American history and calls for a trillion dollars in spending in addition to the near trillion dollars of taxpayer money we need to use to bailout Wall Street. During these tough times Obama's only solution is to spend more and raise taxes, but that will only make things worse."
