¹ Likely voters were defined based on a combination of past vote history from the voter file, where available, stated past vote history where it was not, and stated 2014 vote intention.

Q.7 Thinking about the election next month for U.S. Congress and other state and local offices, how likely are you to vote in that election? Please rate your likelihood in voting from one to ten, with one meaning that you are not at all likely to vote, ten meaning that you are absolutely certain to vote, and five meaning you have a 50/50 chance of voting. Of course, you can choose any number between one and ten. If you have already voted, please just say so.
