70 (ECON OVERALL) We have to build an economy that works for everyone, not just those at the top. We have to invest in infrastructure, innovation and technology, and renewable energy. We have to create a fairer economy by raising the national minimum wage, guaranteeing equal pay for women, and ensuring workers share in the profits they make, not just the executives at the top. We need to do more to support people struggling to balance family and work, like ensuring paid family leave, and affordable child care and debt-free college. And let's do it by having the wealthy pay their fair share and close the corporate loopholes.....	35	31	16	18	-	66	82	34

71 (TAX AND TRICKLE DOWN) I think it's time that the wealthy and corporations paid their fair share to support this country, because they have made all the gains in the economy. But the plan Donald Trump has put forward it is Trumped-up trickle down. His plan would have the biggest tax cuts for the top one percent that we've ever had, including a 4 billion dollar tax break for his family. Slashing taxes on the wealthy hasn't worked. It got us into the mess we were in, in 2008. Broad-based growth is what we need in America, not more advantages for people at the very top.....	33	28	16	22	0	61	77	39

72 (OPPORTUNITY/ INCLUSIVENESS) Inclusive growth is what we need in America. That includes building up and investing in the middle class, but also addressing implicit bias in ourselves and our police officers, taking aim at systemic racism in our criminal justice system, and ensuring the color of your skin doesn't determine where you live, the quality of your education, or what jobs you can get. We cannot just say law and order. Inclusive growth means all Americans have the opportunity to go to college, start a business and pursue their dreams.	30	35	18	17	-	65	83	35

She called the Trans-Pacific Partnership the "gold standard" in trade agreements before she realized she could not win that fight and changed her position. 75 (FAILED ECONOMIC POLICIES)
 Hillary Clinton will kill our economy and jobs. She is going to approve one of the biggest tax increases in history. She will add regulations on top of regulations, so new companies cannot form and old companies will keep going out of business or ship their jobs overseas. She supported NAFTA and will support more bad trade deals that send our companies overseas. Hillary Clinton's policies have failed us and it is time for change.
