With our economy in crisis and Americans fighting two wars, we don't need a President that invites testing from the world or would sit down unconditionally with the world's worst dictators."*

John McCain says, "Senator Obama has made it clear that he wants to raise your taxes so he can, quote, 'spread the wealth around.' Now is not the time for Obama's socialist policies and now, more than ever, small businesses should be reinvesting their earnings to create more jobs rather than sending that money to the tax-and-spend liberals in Washington. Senator Obama is more interested in controlling who gets your piece of the pie than he is growing the pie, but I'll support policies that keep your taxes low, stimulate growth, and get our economy back on track."

OR

Barack Obama says, "John McCain is attacking my plan to cut taxes for the middle class and working Americans, but I think it is just common sense and so do Colin Powell and Warren Buffett, who have endorsed my campaign. Under my plan, no one making under a quarter of a million dollars, including 98 percent of business owners, will see their taxes increase a single dime and 95 percent of Americans will get a tax cut. But Senator McCain wants to give corporate executives more tax breaks with no relief for the struggling middle class."
